

Ham Radio General Class Now Forming!!

As a General Class Radio Operator You Get To

- Serve Your Community
 - Talk To Other Hams On The Radio On High Frequencies Around The World!!
 - Meet New Friends
-

The UW Space Place, 2300 S. Park St., will be holding a weekend course where YOU will learn everything you need to earn your Amateur Radio General license. (Technician license is a prerequisite to obtain this license)
FCC: Morse Code knowledge is no longer required!!

This Free class is May 8 & 9, 2010.

Technician license & registration is required.

For more information please contact:

Don Michalski, dem@sal.wisc.edu, 263-4685

www.arrl.org/hamradio.html

ARRL, The national association for Amateur Radio --
Helping Hams Get Started Since 1914.
1-800-32-NEWHAM

